WOUNDED SECOND TIME.
Private Peter C. Peno of St. Albans

Writes Parents of Injury.
St. Albans, Dec. 19.—Private Peter C. Peno, who is reported wounded in action, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Peno of Federal street. He was wounded last July and after a long hospital experience had been back in the trenches only two days when, Sept. 28, he was wounded in the right hand.

A letter received by his parents yesterday, dated Nov. 23, said he was in the hospital camp yet. Private Peno was a member of Co. B, 1st Vermont infantry, National Guard, when it was on the Mexican border in the summer of 1916 and he went to Fort Ethan Allen with the company when it was called into service the next spring. He went to Camp Devens, Mass., and then overseas, where he was with Company C, 103d machine gun battalion. He is 21 years old. He writes that he was in the trenches nine months and over the top eight times. A brother, George Peno, is now with the Canadian expeditionary forces in France, and another brother, Private Henry Peno, died in this city Dec. 2 from the effects of gas poisoning suffered while serving with the Canadian forces at the front.

Pvt. Peter Peno has three other brothers and sisters.

Harley F. Sutton.
Harley F. Sutton of Randolph, mentioned in the casualty list yesterday as wounded, enlisted when Capt. E. W. Gibson was at Montpelier last spring, and went to Camp Greene, where he was assigned to Company H of the 39th infantry and went to France early in the summer.

Stefan Bech.
Stefan Bech of Orleans was a selective service man who went to Camp Devens in the spring and was assigned to the 15th company of the 4th battalion of the depot brigade. He was reported as wounded.

Leland A. Parmelee.
Leland A. Parmelee of Brandon, who was wounded, is a son of Dan B. Parmelee. He went to Fort Ethan Allen in June, 1917, and was assigned to Company C, 1st Vermont regiment, after which he was promoted to corporal and then transferred to another organization with which he went to France.

Robert C. Baker.
Robert C. Baker of Washington enlisted when volunteers were sought to recruit Company C, 1st Vermont regiment. He went to Fort Ethan Allen to complete his enlistment and was later transferred

Important to All Women
Readers of This Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be dependent; it makes anyone so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

A good kidney medicine, possessing real healing and curative value, should be a blessing to thousands of nervous, over-worked women.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine, will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you will receive sample size bottle by parcel post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores—Adv.

NO TONIC LIKE HOOD'S

Sarsaparilla for a Time Like This, After

Influenza, the Grip,
When purified blood, rebuilt strength and regulated bowels are essential.

In the after-effects of influenza, the grip and other prostrating diseases, Hood's Sarsaparilla has remarkable health-helping effect.

It expels the poisons that have weakened and depleted the blood, causing palor, anemia, flabby flesh and lax muscles. It is the standard blood remedy with a successful record of nearly fifty years.

Many people—it is really astonishing how many—need a fine, gentle, easy cathartic in these trying times. We recommend Hood's Pills, used in the best families, and equally effective with delicate women or robust men. Easy to take, easy to operate—Adv.

to the 101st machine gun battalion of the 26th division, with which he went to France.

Albert Sherbert.
Albert Sherbert of Westfield was a selective service man who went to Camp Devens and was assigned to the 6th company in the depot brigade of the 70th division, with which he went to France and was wounded.

Austin Hook.
Austin Hook of Groton enlisted in the drive made to recruit the 1st Vermont at Camp Greene last February. Upon reaching the camp he was assigned to the headquarters company of the 38th infantry, with which he went to France, where he was wounded.

26, 1918.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 19.—Private Frederick E. Ballard (deceased) of Ludlow, Vt., was among those cited for distinguished service, according to an announcement made by the war department to-day. Private Ballard was a member of Co. C, 102d machine gun battalion.

The citation says: "For extraordinary heroism in action near Marcheville, France, Sept. 26, 1918 Pvt. Ballard displayed remarkable courage and coolness during this engagement. When apparently trapped in an enemy trench near a machine gun emplacement, he worked his way out under the wire entanglement in plain view of the enemy, and, returning with hand grenades, assisted in bombing out the machine gun nest and capturing some of the men who were defending it. Later he accompanied a detachment and assisted in mopping up the town, driving out the enemy, and taking several prisoners. While thus engaged he was struck by an exploding shell and killed. Next to him, Mrs. Jessie Mrs. Josephine Clark, whose father Ludlow, Vt.

GERMAN EFFORTS REVEALED.
In Plan to Form Latin-American Union in South America.

Buenos Aires, Dec. 19 (correspondence of the Associated Press).—German efforts to encourage the much discussed Latin-American union between Spain and the Spanish speaking republics of Central and South America as a weapon against Pan-Americanism came to light in the German-inspired article that appeared in connection with the observance of "The Day of the Race," as the Spanish speaking people designate the anniversary of the discovery of the Americas.

The Argentine newspapers and weekly magazines carried special articles, pointing out the advantage of a union that would make the Spanish speaking nations independent of all others. Several of these were signed by men who are known for their pro-German sympathies. It was also noticeable that the articles appearing in the purely German newspapers were even more insistent in supporting such a union than the Argentine papers.

This union with Spain was proposed first from Spanish sources nearly two years ago and it was suspected then, from its antipathy to Pan-Americanism, that German schemes were behind the move. The proposal has been kept alive in this country ever since by pro-German and Spaniards who have made no attempt to hide the fact that their efforts are directed against the United States.

The principal argument is that South America must be protected from "American imperialism." Spain is pointed to as the great mother country that can supply all the needs and at the same time the sympathetic understanding that comes from a common language and common religion. The Spanish clergy is aiding the propagandists in their campaign.

One of the articles published to-day stated that the war had brought about new forms of international friendship and that this friendship in the future will be based on mutual gain and advantages. Questions of languages, race, and religion it adds, may sow the seeds of most differences to-morrow and it therefore behooves the twenty Spanish speaking American nations, to unite for their common advantage. The argument closes with the statement that the league of nations is a hopeless dream.

Another paper urges that this Latin-American union should not be merely an economic union, but one for common defense and offense.

"In time of peace," it argues, "we must prepare for war. The passive defense of the frontiers of Spain and the South American republics is not enough against the powerful nations, especially against those which rule the seas, but a close defensive union of Spain and the South American republics would be sufficient against any aggression."

"We should adopt an active offensive attitude rather than a passive defensive one."

"The united navies of Spain and South America could present an effective resistance to any aggression and would put an end to the imperialism of the larger nations so far as their ambitions in South America are concerned."

SPAIN FAILED TO GET WILSON

But Premier Romanones
Will Go to Paris to Consult with Him

ABOUT RELATIONS
OF THE TWO NATIONS

People of Spain Expect More Friendly Relation to Develop

Madrid, Dec. 19.—Count Romanones, Spanish premier, is going to Paris to interview President Wilson. He will be accompanied by Robert M. Scotten, secretary of the American embassy, and Senores Palacio and Espinosa, high officials of the foreign office. During his absence Amalio Jimeno, minister of the interior, will act as premier. Count Romanones is expected to be away from Madrid for at least five or six days.

When it became known that President Wilson was coming to Europe, King Alfonso and members of the cabinet approached Joseph E. Willard, American ambassador, to see if it could be arranged for Mr. Wilson to come to Spain. This was not so much for a political object as it was to show him the spot from which Columbus sailed to discover the new world. The result of the negotiations was that Mr. Wilson could not come to Spain, but would be glad to discuss future relations between Spain and the United States with Count Romanones.

News of the latter's intention to go to Paris has created a most excellent impression throughout Spain and opinion is generally expressed that it will strengthen the friendly relations between the United States and Spain.

will not suffer any of the hardships that their soldiers and officers have inflicted upon us. Shall they not salute our officers, dressed in the gaiters as our soldiers promenade on their sidewalks? Is it conceivable that their women will be spared the humiliation of humbly begging of our officers a passport to travel between Aix-la-Chapelle and Cologne as our wives and daughters had to do to go from Bruges to Ostend? If we end it now they are beaten militarily, but they are not vanquished in their pride, in their hearts.

"He is a hotel keeper. The Germans requisitioned twenty-seven thousand bottles of wine from his cellar," volunteered one of his audience standing near by.

Of all the allied soldiers the Belgian was the one who appeared to have the greatest desire to enter Germany. His country is strewn with the wreckage of former happy homes, perhaps the very ones where the soldier dwelt in an effort to settle the strike which resulted from the discharge of 12 union officers on Tuesday. Meanwhile, 150 special policemen are guarding the city, assisted by the military police. No disorder has been reported.

One of the principal contentions of the strikers is that the police commissioners must recognize the union before any move toward conciliation will be considered. There has been no indication that the commissioners will recognize the union.

Newport News, Va., Dec. 19.—Two army transports—the Martha Washington with the 118th field artillery, and the Mercury with 800 sick and wounded abroad—were expected to reach this port to-day.

Paris, Dec. 19 (Havas).—A German mine which had been planted in a bridge at Guise has exploded, killing 15 persons and injuring 25, according to a Guise dispatch to the Matin. The date of the explosion is not given, but the dispatch says that it occurred more than a month after the armistice went into effect.

Bruges, Dec. 19 (correspondence of the Associated Press).—The civil population of Belgium is much more bitter toward the Germans than the soldiers who have fought them to a standstill four years, crushed them, battered them about and wrecked the empire during the past four months. Terms of bitter execration, hate and revenge come from the civilians alone.

A little old woman, the owner of a cigar store, after selling the Associated Press correspondent a villainous cheroot, an "ersatz" cigar relic of the German occupation, launched forth into a violent denunciation of the uninvited guests who made Bruges their home for four years. "This war must not end like this," she said with a vehemence which contrasted greatly with her gentle appearance, "we must go into Germany, they must suffer, expiate." On the day of their departure the Germans robbed her store of $500 worth of her best cigars and cigarettes.

American Jewish Congress Preparing Recommendations.

Philadelphia, Dec. 18.—Committees of the American Jewish congress, in session here, labored until early to-day preparing recommendations on the rights of Jews in certain foreign lands which the congress is expected to have presented to the peace conference at Versailles. The recommendations have to do with conditions in Poland, Russia, Lithuania, Ukraine, Galicia, Saloniki and the new Slavic nations created, or to be set up, as result of the world war.

The recommendations, it is expected, will call for full civil, religious, political and national rights for Jews as exercised by the other inhabitants in all the lands coming within the jurisdiction of the peace conference. Delegates to the congress were still enthusiastic to-day over the action of the congress yesterday in declaring for a Jewish commonwealth in Palestine under the trusteeship of Great Britain, acting for such league of peace as may be formed. The European delegates which will be elected by the congress will be given the task of presenting the declaration to the peace conference. It is expected to have the co-operation of Jewish organizations in other countries, particularly the Zionist world organization.

Easy to Make This Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results. Inexpensive, and saves about $1.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain granulated sugar syrup. To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pine in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified pompas, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pine and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pine is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pine" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded.
